IMAGENETIX, INC.'S SECOND REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF
DOCUMENTS, DIRECTED TO GERO
VITA, INC.

15 IMAGENETIX, INC.'S SECOND REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS
16 DIRECTED TO GERO VITA, INC.

17 Pursuant to Rules 26 and 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff Imagenetix,
18 Inc. ("Imagenetix") requests that Gero Vita, Inc. ("Gero Vita"), respond to each of the following 19 requests for production of documents, and produce all responsive documents for inspection and 20 copying within 30 days following the date of service of these requests.

22 DEFINITIONS

23 As used herein, the following terms are defined as follows:

24 1. The term "Gero Vita," "you," or "your" refers to Gero Vita, Inc. along with the 25 organization's predecessor(s) and successor entities, their officers, directors, shareholders, parent
26 and subsidiary companies (whether direct or indirect), affiliates, employees, agents, attorneys,
27 representatives, and any other persons acting or authorized to act on behalf of them.
28

2. “Accused Products” are defined as the following products: Arthro-7 and Arthro-8.

3. “All” should be construed to include the collective as well as the singular and shall mean “each,” “any,” and “every.”

4. “Any” shall be construed to mean “any and all.”

5. “Communications” include but are not limited to emails, voicemails, text messages, instant messages, written correspondence, sales training materials, meeting records, newsletters, brochures, and publications.

6. “Document” is defined to be synonymous in meaning and equal in scope of the usage of this term in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a) (documents include “writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, and other data or data compilations stored in any medium from which information can be obtained either directly or, if necessary, after translation by the responding party into a reasonably usable form.”). A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of this term.

7. “Electronically stored information” or “ESI” includes all metadata and information that is stored in an electronic medium and is retrievable in a perceivable form including, without limitation, the following:

a. information that is generated, received, processed, and recorded by computers and other electronic devices;

b. internal or external web sites;

c. output resulting from the use of any software program, including, without limitation, word processing documents, spreadsheets, database files, charts, graphs and outlines, email, instant messages, text messages, or bulletin board programs, operating systems, source code, PRF files, PRC files, batch files, ASCII files, and all miscellaneous media on which they reside and regardless of whether said electronic data exists in an active file, a deleted file, or file fragment;

d. activity listings of email receipts and/or transmittals; and

e. any and all items stored on computer memories, hard disks, floppy disks, CD-ROM, magnetic tape, microfiche, or in any other vehicle for digital data storage or transmittal, such as, but not limited to, a smartphone, e.g., iPhone, Blackberry, or similar device, and file folder tabs, or containers and labels appended to, or relating to, any physical storage device associated with each original or copy of all documents requested herein.

8. “Employee” means, without limitation, any current or former officer, director, executive, manager, secretary, staff member, messenger, or agent.

9. “Including” is used to emphasize certain types of documents requested and should not be construed as limiting the request in any way.

10. The phrase “to identify” when referring to a person means to give, to the extent known, the person’s full name, present or last known address, and when referring to a natural person, additionally, the present or last known place of employment. When referring to documents, “to identify” means to give, to the extent known, the (i) type of document; (ii) general subject matter; (iii) date of the document; and (iv) author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s).

11. “Or” and “and” should be construed so as to require the broadest possible response. If, for example, a request calls for information about “A or B” or “A and B,” you should produce all information about A and all information about B, as well as all information about A and B collectively.

12. “Person” means, without limitation, any natural person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, proprietorship, joint venture, association, government entity, group or other form of legal entity.

13. “Relating to,” “referring to,” “regarding,” or “with respect to” mean, without limitation, the following concepts: discussing, describing, reflecting, concerning, dealing with,

1 pertaining to, analyzing, evaluating, estimating, containing, constituting, studying, surveying,
2 projecting, assessing, recording, summarizing, criticizing, reporting, commenting, or otherwise
3 involving, in whole or in part.

4 INSTRUCTIONS

6 emailed will be the date of service, as if the discovery had been delivered in paper format.

8 2. Pursuant to Rule 26(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, these document requests
9 are continuing in nature so that if you subsequently discover or obtain possession, custody, or 10 control of any document covered by these requests, you shall promptly make any such document
11 available to plaintiff.

12 3. In producing documents, you are to furnish all documents or things in your possession,
13 custody or control, regardless of whether such documents are possessed directly by you or your 14 employees, agents, parent companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, investigators or by your attorneys or 15 their employees, agents or investigators.

17 4. Pursuant to Rule 34(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, all documents shall be 18 produced in the same order as they are kept or maintained by you in the ordinary course of your
19 business. All documents, other than electronically stored information, shall be produced in the file
20 folder, envelope or other container in which the documents are kept or maintained. If for any reason
21 the container cannot be produced, you should produce copies of all labels or other identifying marks
22 which may be present on the container.

24 5. Documents shall be produced in such fashion as to identify the department, branch or 25 office in whose possession they were located and, where applicable, the natural person in whose 26 possession they were found (i.e., the document custodian) and the business address of each 27 document custodian.

1 6. If a document once existed and subsequently has been lost, destroyed or is otherwise
2 missing, you should provide sufficient information to identify the document and state, in writing, the 3 details, including whether the document:

- 4 a. is lost or missing;
- 5 b. has been destroyed and, if so, by whom at whose request;
- 6 c. has been transferred or delivered, voluntarily or involuntarily, to another 7 person or entity and at whose request; or

- 13 b. the date or approximate date of the document's disposition; and
- 14 c. the identity of all persons who have or had knowledge of the document's 15 contents.

17 portion of the document requested is withheld based on a claim of privilege pursuant to Rule
18 26(b)(5) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, provide a statement of the claim of privilege and all
19 facts relied upon in support of that claim, including the following information:

- 20 a. the reason for withholding the document;
- 21 b. the date of such communication;

5 communication and present location of any such document; and

7 h. the number or numbers of these requests for production of documents to 8 which such information is responsive.

9 9. Documents attached to one another should not be separated. Each document requested
10 should be produced in its entirety and without deletion, redaction or excisions, except as qualified by 11 Instruction 8 above, regardless of whether you consider the entire document or only part of it to be 12 relevant or responsive to these document requests. If you have redacted any portion of a document,
13 stamp the word "REDACTED" beside the redacted information on each page of the document which 14 you have redacted. Any redactions to documents produced should be identified in accordance with
